Presenters

Suzy Becker, Author/Artist/Activist

www.SuzyBecker.com

*Suzy is the bestselling author of 11 books for all ages--all illustrated, all funny-- including the middle grade illustrated Kate the Great chapter books, and Kids Make It Better, a write-in/draw-in anthology of kids' solutions to world problems. Her interactive workshops reinforce state standards, fun, and fairness, in no particular order.*

Suzanne Bloom, Author/Illustrator

www.SuzanneBloom.com

*Suzanne is the author/illustrator of 20 picture books, including the Seuss Award-winning A Splendid Friend Indeed and The Bus for Us. Her interactive workshops for K - 6th Graders are rooted in a love of kids, words, the creative process, inclusivity and kindness.*

Fred Bowen, Author/Columnist

www.FredBowen.com

Fred is the author of 25 sports books for 7-12 y.o.s and one thousand weekly kid columns for the Washington Post. The chocolate: kids love sports. The broccoli: Fred uses his sports writing to engage kids in the writing process with a peek at his drafts and revisions so they can see every writer starts in the same place-- a blank page, and some imagination.

Presenters

Robin Brickman, Artist/Illustrator/STEAM
www.RobinBrickman.com

With 17 titles to her name, Robin has illustrated an array of flora and fauna in her award-winning career. Her programs make the connection between art and science for kids in kindergarten through middle school. (All of her virtual creation workshops use stuff kids will find at home—paper, scissors, glue.)

Steven Krasner, Journalist/Author

www.NudgingTheImagination.com

Steve is the author of 7 books for kids and the head of a non-profit writing camp for under-served middle schoolers. Following a career covering the Boston Red Sox for the Providence Journal and ESPN, Steve's made "nudging kids' imaginations" his mission. His highly collaborative, fun-filled writing programs tie directly to the curriculum.

Amy MacDonald, Author
Kennedy Center Teaching Artist

www.AmyMacDonald.com

*Amy is the author of over a dozen books, including the bestselling children's classic Little Beaver and the Echo and a Teaching Artist with the Kennedy Center. Her education-based presentations have engaged and entertained kindergartners through eighth graders (and their teachers) worldwide.*

Presenters

Greg Mone, Science Journalist/Author
www.GregoryMone.com

*A New York Times bestselling author, Greg has published 12 titles for young readers, including The Boys in the Boat, and Bill Nye's Great Big World of Science. Greg gets serious with kids about the things they love, like robots, aliens, pirates, and bugs. He also makes learning serious things, like the history of the Universe, fun!*

Richard Sobol
Photographer/Author/Conservationist
www.RichardSobol.com

*Richard and his camera have captured stories about animals, people, and their habitats in over 50 countries around the world. His photographs appear regularly in the New York Times, National Geographic, and TIME. Richard's dynamic programs captivate while educating kids about impactful storytelling and global citizenship.*

Eric Velasquez, Author/Illustrator
www.EricVelasquez.com

Eric is the author/illustrator of over 30 books. He is the recipient of the Coretta Scott King, Pura Belpre, and Walter Awards. Eric draws on the inspiration of his s/heroes, from his grandmother to Arturo Schomburg and Martin Luther King. His own journey from reluctant reader to award-winning author inspires kids and grown-ups alike.

Testimonials

Students & Teachers Say it Best

"The way you talk, it made me feel like I'm the only one there." – Josalyn, 3rd grade

"Excellent approach. Amy baited the hook and reeled them in. They wrote some of the best stuff they have come up with all year." – Sixth Grade Teacher

"Students were almost jumping out of their seats to share in writing their story with Steve. They loved his writing workshops and were thrilled with student participation." – Carol Kraemer, Librarian, Sacred Heart Model School, Louisville, KY
